

JYROJETS ANNOUNCE FOUR FREE HEADLINING SHOWS INCLUDING 'ROAD TO ROCKNESS' WARM UP SHOWS

"Great songs, boosted by strong vocal harmonies and bags of on stage presence....they understand completely how to work a crowd."

Record of The Day

Scotland's finest export Jyrojets have now confirmed four free shows on their home turf. They will be playing Cabaret Voltaire in Edinburgh on May 27 and ABC 2, Glasgow on May 28. With the imminent release of their debut self-titled album on June 16 – what better way to showcase new tracks to their ever-growing dedicated fan base.

Gearing up for their main stage performance at this year's Rockness on June 8, Jyrojets will also be appearing at two free Road to Rockness shows. One in their home town of Inverness on 30 May, which is sure to be a memorable show and one in Dundee on 31 May.

Demonstrating passionate, anthemic and genuine rock songs – Jyrojets powerful live show is unlike anything else you'll see this year. 2008 is already proving to be Jyrojets year, make sure you catch this five-some as soon as you can!

Jyrojets the debut album is released on June 16 – digital release and June 23 physical release.

The first single Dead On Arrival to be released off this highly anticipated album will be available for download only on 9 June.

Full dates:

27 May – Cabaret Voltaire, Edinburgh

28 May – ABC 2, Glasgow

30 May – Ironworks, Inverness

31 May – Fat Sam's, Dundee

For more information on the shows please go to : www.myspace.com/jyrojets

For further information contact:

+ 44 207 439 7222

Holly Ferguson – holly@ldcommunications.co.uk

Alex Darling – alex.darling@ldcommunications.co.uk

